PREFACE

The advent of the Competence-Based Curriculum (CBC) heralds a new era of dynamic and practical learning experiences designed to equip learners with the 21st century skills. It marks a trans-formative step in improving education quality and relevance.

The Literature in English Teaching Module for Ordinary level has been designed in line with the Competence Based Education principles which seek to link education to real life experiences. The General Competences provided in the 2023 Zambia Curriculum Framework are linked to the content of this module.

The module aims to support teachers of Literature in English in the implementation of the CBC in the absence of approved textbooks. It therefore reflects the Ministry's unwavering commitment to making this journey as smooth as possible for teachers. However, teachers are encouraged to supplement this module with their own research and innovations in order to address any gaps that may arise during implementation.

I hope teachers will make good use of this resource.

Acknowledgement

The Literature in English Teaching Module for Ordinary Level has been developed through a consultative and participatory process. Many individuals, institutions and organizations were consulted and accorded an opportunity to make proposals about the content of this teaching module. I would, therefore, like to express my profound gratitude to individuals, institutions and organizations that provided the financial and technical input to the successful development of this teaching module. These include; Teachers, Lecturers from Colleges of Education and Universities, Subject Associations, Civil Society Organizations, and Cooperating Partners.

Finally, I appreciate the commitment and hard work of the staff at the Directorate of Curriculum Development in ensuring the successful completion of the Teaching Module.

INTRODUCTION

The Literature in English Teaching Module for Ordinary level has been developed to support teachers in the effective delivery of Literature in English lessons under the reformed curriculum. The module is developed based on the approved 2024 Competence-based Literature in English syllabus. It aims to bridge the gap created by the absence of approved textbooks and to equip educators with activities and assessments tailored to the learners' level and needs.

The Ministry understands the challenges that come with transitioning to a new curriculum that is Competence-Based. The choice of the Competence-Based Curriculum (CBC) marks a transformative step in improving education quality and relevance. This module reflects the Ministry's unwavering commitment to making this journey as smooth as possible for teachers, by providing structured guidance, suggested activities, and formative assessments that align with the CBC's objectives. However, teachers are encouraged to supplement this module with their own research and innovations in order to address any gaps that may arise during implementation.

The suggested activities and assessments provided in this module are designed to foster practical and critical thinking skills in learners while ensuring relevance and adaptability to different school contexts. Teachers are encouraged to tailor these pedagogical skills to their unique classroom dynamics and to explore alternative, acceptable approaches which are learner centred. This flexibility is key to ensuring that all learners, regardless of their environment, benefit from meaningful and impactful Curriculum.

It is envisaged that this module will serve as a valuable resource for teachers as they navigate the new Competence-Based Curriculum, enhancing their ability to inspire and equip learners with essential literary knowledge, skills and positive attitudes desired to create a vibrant and responsive education system.

HOW THE MODULE SHOULD BE USED

This module contains the content scheduled for teaching in the third term of Form 1 Literature in English. It is divided into topics and sub-topics for different components. The content provided in this module are not scripted lessons but should be used to come up with lessons. When preparing lessons, you should draw content from different sources. As you prepare a lesson you must select appropriate teaching and learning activities as well as suggested teaching points. Furthermore, the activities provided for each competence are not meant to be exhausted in one lesson. These can be done in different lessons. Note however that, this module is meant to guide the teacher and not a resource for learners.

SUGGESTED TEACHING METHODOLOGY

Generally, lesson delivery should follow a variety of teaching methods and techniques such as class discussion, role play, simulation, dramatization, multi-media integration and project-based learning.

TERM 3-LITERATURE IN ENGLISH- TEACHING AND LEARNING ACTIVITIES

TOPIC: 1.2.2 WRITTEN LITERATURE

INTRODUCTION

Written Literature has a number of genres that appeal to the mind of the audience. One such genre is drama. Drama is a genre of literature and performance that involves a serious emotional, or thought-provoking narrative, presented in front of the audience.

GENERAL COMPETENCES

The learners will exhibit the following competences:

- Analytical Thinking: grasp and breakdown information and effectively share with others.
- Collaboration: Learners to participate fully in groups and play the assigned roles or tasks.
- Communication: Effectively share one's thoughts and emotions, and understand others.
- Critical Thinking: Analyse texts, to improve the ability to understand.
- Emotional Intelligence: communicate and relate effectively with others

KEY TERMS / VOCABULARY

Some key terms/vocabulary to be introduced in this sub-topic include:

- Script- piece of writing meant to be performed.
- Analyse – to examine something in detail.
- Genre – type of artistic work that shares common characteristics.
- Theme – a central idea in a literary work
- Audience – a group of people before whom drama is performed.
- Emotions – strong feelings evoked in people as they watch or listen to drama

SUB TOPIC: 1.2.2.3. DRAMA

Overview

In this sub topic, the definition of drama and its key elements such as Plot, Character, Script/Play, Stage Directions and Audience will be discussed. Learners will be expected to perform plays.

Specific Competence – Learners to:

1.2.2.3.1. Demonstrate understanding of drama.

Learning Activity 1a Discussing Drama and its elements (script meant to be performed on stage: plot, character (actor), dialogue, setting, conflict, staging, theme, symbolism, irony...)

- ✓ Introduce drama and its elements to the learners and how drama can be performed as provided in the excerpt below.

“The Price of a Shortcut”

(Stage Director- provides stage directions in this play)

Characters (actors)

Mwamba – A Form 1 learner, smart but tempted by shortcuts.

Chipego – Mwamba’s best friend, honest and hardworking.

Teacher Lubasi – Their class teacher.

Mr. Phiri – A corrupt council official.

Mama Mwansa – Mwamba’s mother.

Policeman

Scene 1: At School – Classroom

It is another day at Kalulu Basic School. Examinations are coming up and everyone is preparing—well, almost everyone.

(Mwamba and Chipego are seated at their desks. Chipego is reading, Mwamba is playing with his phone.)

Chipego: Mwamba, are you not going to revise? The exams are next week!

Mwamba: Ah, Chipego, why stress? I heard my uncle can get me the examination paper in advance. Just a little something for the “officer.”

Chipego: You mean... cheat? That is not right, Mwamba!

Mwamba: Who cares? Even big people steal money and get away with it. What is the point of suffering?

Exit

But what Mwamba does not know is that shortcuts have consequences.

Scene 2: Mwamba's Home – Evening

(Mwamba and Mama Mwansa are seated. He is excited.)

Mwamba: Mama, I found a way to pass my exams easily! Uncle Phiri says he can get the paper for me—just K500.

Mama Mwansa: Mwamba! That is corruption. That is like stealing. You must pass with your own effort.

Mwamba: But everyone does it!

Mama Mwansa: That does not make it right. Corruption is like a disease. It destroys our future, little by little.

Exit

Scene 3: Council Office – Daytime

(Mr. Phiri sits behind a desk. Mwamba sneaks in.)

Mr. Phiri: Ah, young Mwamba. Do you have the money?

Mwamba: (nervously) Yes, Uncle... here is the K500.

(As Mwamba hands over the money, a Policeman walks in.)

Policeman: Caught you! We have been tracking your corruption. Both of you are under arrest.

Mwamba: No! I just wanted to pass...

Exit

And just like that, Mwamba's shortcut leads him into a bigger problem. But this is not the end.

Scene 4: Classroom – After a Week

(Teacher Lubasi addresses the class.)

Teacher Lubasi: Class, I want you to remember: corruption is not just about stealing money. It's also cheating, bribing, or doing wrong to get ahead.

Chipego: So what happened to Mwamba?

Teacher Lubasi: He is learning the hard way. But we hope he will change. The future of Zambia depends on young people like you doing the right thing.

Cast: (Come forward and say together) "Say no to corruption!"

(cast exits)

End of Play

Let us all say no to corruption—at school, at home, and everywhere. A better Zambia starts with you.

- ✓ Lead a class discussion on drama and its elements.

Consolidate the activity by highlighting the following:

- ✓ Drama is a genre of literature that is intended to be performed by actors in front of an audience. It can also be experienced through reading scripts.
- ✓ Here are key elements of drama:

- a. Plot- the sequence of events in a play.
- b. Characters (Actors)-performers of actions in a play.
- c. Dialogue-conversations between two characters.
- d. Conflict- the problem or struggle that the character encounters which drives the plot and creates tension in the play.
- e. Theme- the central or main idea in a play.
- f. Setting-The time, place and social context in which the drama takes place.
- g. Staging-how the play is presented on stage (set design).
- h. Stage Directions-Instructions given by the playwright for the performance. They describe how actors should move, speak or interact with props and other actors on stage.
- i. Symbolism-Objects, actions or characters that represent deeper meaning.
- j. Irony- statements are directly opposite of what is actually meant.

Elements of Drama in the Script – The Price of a Shortcut

Conflict

The central conflict is between Mama Mwansa, who values integrity, and Mwamba, who embodies corruption. The clash between right and wrong drives the narrative.

Characterization

Mama Mwansa represents honesty, hard work, and moral strength. Mwamba represents greed, manipulation, and dishonesty.

Chiwego represents the innocent people who suffer because of corruption, while the Policeman shows that not everyone in the system is corrupt.

Dialogue

The dialogue reveals the characters' beliefs, motivations, and personalities. Mwamba persuasive tactics contrast with Mama Mwansa firm resolve.

Setting

The dialogues take place in different place in different places like the Classroom, Mwamba's Home and the Council Office.

Resolution

The resolution shows that standing up for what is right, even against powerful forces, can lead to positive change. Mama Mwansa victory is small but meaningful.

Theme

This script not only highlights the consequences of corruption but also shows how courage, integrity, and standing up for what is right can have a lasting impact. It also serves as a lesson for young people on the importance of moral values in society.

Suggested Teaching and Learning Material: Flip Charts, Markers, Written Texts ...

Expected Standard: Understanding of Drama demonstrated adequately

Assessment Activity

Assign topics to learners on which they can write scripts to be acted in the next lesson

Summary

Conclude the lesson by highlighting the following;

- ✓ Drama is a genre of literature that is intended to be performed by actors in front of an audience. It can also be experienced through reading scripts.
- Plot- the sequence of events in a play.
- Characters (Actors)-performers of actions in a play.

Specific Competence: Learners to

1.2.2.3.2. Perform Plays

Learning activity 1a Performing Plays (on cross cutting themes such as gender, climate change, corruption, governance...).

- Let the learners present the scripts that they wrote as assigned to them in the previous lesson.
- Allow the groups to perform their plays.
- Conduct a plenary session.

Consolidate the activity by highlighting the following:

- ✓ Learners shall learn and acquire the skill of performing plays. Guidelines shall be given to learners on how to act in a play such as:
 - Costume- clothing and accessories worn by actors to portray characters in a play.
 - Voice projection-clarity and audibility of the actor's voice.
 - Body movement- deliberate use of an actor's physical self to convey meaning, feelings and emotions. They include posture, gestures, facial expression and gait.
 - Facial expression- use of the face to show emotions, thoughts and reactions of a character.
 - Gestures- small movements used with any part of the body to communicate meaning, feelings or actions to an audience. Proper use of gestures can amplify a point, put emphasis and indicate the emotions of characters.
 - Properties (Props)- objects that actors handle or use on stage.
 - Staging- how the play is presented on stage (set design).
 - Stage Directions-Instructions given by the playwright for the performance. They describe how actors should move, speak or interact with props and other actors on stage.
 - Turn-taking-the way actors in a conversation take turns speaking, listening and responding.

Suggested Teaching and Learning Materials: Recorded plays, costume, flip charts, markers...

Expected Standard: Plays performed skillfully.

Assessment Activity

Assign learners specific roles that they will act out in a play on any cross-cutting themes.

Summary

Conclude the lesson by highlighting the following:

SUB-TOPIC- 1.2.2.4. POETRY

Overview

Poetry is a general term used for poems as a genre of literature. Poems are used to express ideas and emotions. This sub topic discusses poetry, its elements and how to perform and review poems.

Specific Competence- Learners to:

1.2.2.4.1. Demonstrate understanding of Poetry

Learning Activity 1a Discussing poetry and basic elements of poetry (piece of writing that uses aesthetic language: line, verse, stanza...)

- Introduce poetry and its elements to the learners and how poems can be performed and reviewed as provided in the excerpt below.

Zambia is Getting Warmer

The sun beats down with fiery light,
Crops dry up, no rain in sight.
Trees are cut, the forests thin,
The heat grows strong; it burns the skin.
The Zambezi's flow is slow and low,
Fields go bare where maize won't grow.

Birds still call from dying trees,
While floods wash farms with rising streams.
Clouds bring storms, then disappear,
The weather shifts from year to year.
We must act and make things clear—
Protect our land or lose it, dear.

- Ask learners to state emotions and ideas on which poems can be based. (Teacher to guide learners on thematic areas of poetry)
- Lead a class discussion on what a poem is and its elements

Consolidate the activity by highlighting the following:

- ✓ Poetry- is a form of literature that uses rhythmic and figurative language to express emotions and ideas.
- ✓ A poem is a literary work that expresses emotions and ideas.
- ✓ Poems are usually Didactic or Aesthetic. Didactic is a literary work that intends to deliver a lesson and Aesthetic is an appreciation of beauty of literary works.

Elements of poetry

- ✓ These are fixed components of a poem. They are important parts of a piece of poetry that a poet cannot do without.

Structural elements of a poem

- Form- the structure of the poem.
- Stanza: a division of a poem consisting of two or more lines arranged together as a unit.
- Line: a unit of writing into which a poem or play is divided.
- Verse: a collection of lines with a metrical rhythm in a poem.
- Rhythm- the pattern of stressed and unstressed syllables in lines of poetry; it creates a musical quality.
- Rhyme- the repetition of similar sounds in two or more words.
- Plot, setting, characters and characterization: (Narrative Poetry)- See notes on short stories

Poetic Devices

- Mood: the disposition of mind and feelings. We can refer to the moods of anger, happiness, sadness that characterize a novel or part of it.
- Imagery- descriptive language that appeals to the senses
- Language- the poet's word choice including figurative language
- Tone- the poet's attitude towards the subject or audience.
- Alliteration- repetition of initial consonant sounds
- Assonance- repetition of vowel sound
- Consonance- repetition of consonant sounds within or at the end of words
- Onomatopoeia- words that imitate sounds

Suggested Teaching and Learning Material: Radio, recorded poems, flip charts, markers, whistles and poetry anthologies.

Expected Standard: Understanding of poetry demonstrated adequately.

Assessment Activities

1. Provide a poem and ask learners to identify the elements of poetry in that poem.
2. Homework: Assign poems to learners to be performed in the next lesson.

1.2.2.4.2. Perform Poems

Activity 1 d- Performing Poems (poems...on cross-cutting issues; drug abuse, climate change, corruption, human rights, teenage pregnancies...)

- ✓ Play a poem for the learners to listen to.
- ✓ Lead a discussion on how to perform poems on different cross-cutting issues. (drug abuse, climate change, corruption, human rights, teenage pregnancies...)
- ✓ Put learners in groups, ask them to perform poems on different cross-cutting issues given in the previous activity. (drug abuse, climate change, corruption, human rights, teenage pregnancies...)
- ✓ Lead a discussion on reviewing performed poems (Content and meaning, poetic devices and techniques, structure and organisation...)

Consolidate the activity by highlighting key aspects of how poems are performed and reviewed:

Performing poetry involves bringing a poem to life through vocal expression, movement, and engagement with an audience.

Performing poems focuses on content, meaning, poetic devices and structural organization.

- ✓ Content and Meaning-The content of a performed poem often reflects personal experiences, cultural identity, historical themes, or contemporary social issues.
- ✓ Poetic Devices: Effective poetry performances emphasize literary devices such as:
 - Imagery-Vivid descriptions that engage the audience's senses.
 - Repetition-Reinforces key messages and creates rhythm.
 - Alliteration and Assonance-Enhance the musicality of a poem.
 - Figurative Language-Add depth to meaning.
- ✓ Performing poems or performance poetry involves delivering poetry aloud with emphasis on:
 - vocal delivery, gestures and body language to create a dynamic and engaging experience for the audience.
 - It is a form of artistic expression that combines poetry, storytelling and performance.

Suggested Teaching and Learning Material: Radio, Computer, Projector, Flipcharts, Markers...

Expected Standard: Poems performed skillfully.

Assessment Activity

1. In groups, assign learners to perform at least one poem.

Summary

Conclude the lesson by highlighting the following:

- ✓ Content and Meaning-The content of a performed poem often reflects personal experiences, cultural identity, historical themes, or contemporary social issues.

LESSON PROGRESSION:

STAGES	TEACHER'S ROLE	LEARNERS' ROLE	PERFORMANCE INDICATOR
--------	----------------	----------------	-----------------------

INTRODUCTION (5 minutes)	Introduce the lesson by asking learners what they know about poetry.	Give responses about what poetry is.	Learners say what they know about poetry.
DEVELOPMENT Step 1: Group work (15 Minutes)	Divide learners in groups and share excerpts of a poem written on A4 papers. For example, ‘Zambia is Getting Warmer’ and let them read it.	Take-turns to read the poem in groups.	Learners take-turns reading the poem.
Step 2: Class discussion (15 Minutes)	Lead a class discussion on what a poem is and its elements (form, line and stanza)	Actively take part in the discussion of what a poem is and its elements (form, line and stanza)	Learners take note of the elements of poetry, which are form, line and stanza.
Step 3: Class discussion (10 Minutes)	Consolidate the lesson by highlighting key aspects of poetry and its elements as explained by the learners.	- Explain poetry and its elements (form, line and stanza): - Poetry- is a form of literature that uses rhythmic and figurative language to express emotions and ideas. - A poem is a literary work that expresses emotions and ideas. - Poems are usually Didactic (teach) or Aesthetic (beauty). - Form- the structure of a poem and collection of lines with a metrical rhythm in a poem. - Stanza: a division of a poem consisting of two or more lines arranged together as a unit. - Line: a unit of writing into which a poem or play is divided.	Learners explain poetry and its elements which are form, line and stanza.

Step 4: Assessment Activity (30 Minutes) Home work	• Provide a poem and ask learners to identify the elements of poetry in that poem: form, line and stanza. • Assign learners to go and research on the other elements of poetry: verse, rhyme and rhythm.	• Individually write down the elements of poetry in the given poem: form, line and stanza. • Attend to the assigned homework on the other elements of poetry: verse, rhyme and rhythm.	Learners give correct responses to the given exercise. Submission of homework in the next lesson.
Conclusion (5 minutes)	• Summarize the day's lesson through question and answer such as: • What do you understand by the following elements of poetry: form, line and stanza?	• Give answers to the posed questions highlighting the elements of poetry which are form, line and stanza.	Learners highlight what poetry is and its elements: form, line and stanza.
